no different.

The key to life is balance. Sleep is no different.

The balance of body temperature. The balance between comfort and support. The balance in any sleep position. The balance between sleeping and relaxing.

Find your balance and experience deep, restorative sleep with a Body Balance mattress by A.H. Beard.

The balance of body temperature with cool to touch

Cool to touch fabric provides an instant cooling effect on the skin. It helps you fall asleep more quickly and maintain optimal sleeping comfort.

The balance between comfort and support

The luxurious Body Balance memory foam provides excellent pressure relief and comfort. It cradles the curves of your body, evenly distributing body weight and alleviating pressure points for a more comfortable sleep.

The balance in any sleep position

Body Balance memory foam conforms to your body shape in any sleeping position. This individual contouring results in minimal partner disturbance, and a more restful sleep through the night.

The balance between sleeping and relaxing

Find your ideal position for sleeping or relaxing or even indulge in a soothing massage. Each Body Balance mattress is adjustable base friendly, allowing you to reach your optimal level of comfort whether you're sleeping or simply relaxing.
